CIPR CORPORATE + FINANCIAL GROUP LUNCH TIME MEETING 12 FEBRUARY 2008
Venue: City Marketing Suite, Basinghall Street London
Tuesday 12 February 2008, Alex Brummer, City Editor, Daily Mail

Alex Brummer has been City Editor for the Daily Mail since 2000. During his 30 years' experience working in the media, he has won over eight awards which include the World Forum Leadership Forum Business Journalist of the Year and Commentator of the Year in 2006 as well as the 2002 Worldwork Media Awards Newspaper Journalist of the Year. He has written biographies of Lord Hanson and Lord Weinstock. He is a regular panelist and speaker including the BBC Financial World This Week and at Jewish events.

Alex Brummer started his media career at J Walter Thomson and Haymarket Publishing between 1970 and 1972. He then went to work for the Guardian as the Financial Correspondent. He was the main reporter on the fringe banking crisis of 1973/4 and the 1976 sterling crisis. After six years in this position he became the US Financial and Washington Correspondent for the Guardian. He then took up positions as a Foreign Editor and Financial Editor and completed his 26 year tenure at the Guardian as Associate Editor. He worked as Consultant Editor for the Financial Mail on Sunday between 1999 and 2000.
